I think from the anarchist perspective the most glaring mistake that is not mentioning the pioroid right after the civil war of 1865. This is when anarchy rained in the south and in the country. The rise of the clan the red shirts and other guerrilla movements to combat the occupation was very effective.

By Elmo Feiten. This paper criticizes a range of recent positions on Max Stirner's relationship to the anarchist canon. A recent rise in academic attention to Stirner offers a possibility for new analyses to clear away the misconceptions of the past, however, some old mistakes are still consistently repeated, not all-important insights find their way into the present discussion, and some new ...
