Catfish and Mandala is the story of an American odyssey—a solo bicycle voyage around the Pacific Rim to Vietnam—made by a young Vietnamese-American man in pursuit of both his adopted homeland and his forsaken fatherland. Andrew X. Pham was born in Vietnam and raised in California. His father had been a POW of the Vietcong; his family came to America as "boat people."

Catfish and Mandala by Andrew X Pham | Books | The Guardian

The FVHS English Department debuted the novel “ Catfish and Mandala ” this year in junior English classes, bringing the first Vietnamese-American voice in its core curriculum. The book ’ s inclusion, part of the department ’ s larger effort to maintain and expand a collection of diverse voices in its literature, fills a long-standing gap in a school whose student body was 54% Asian in the 2016-2017 school year .

In the book Catfish and Mandala, Andrew Pham was the same struggling with his identity after he left his homeland Vietnam. For Pham, leaving his country to the United States is a big turning point in his life. This turning point changes his life a lot the same way it changes me, both physically and mentally.
