The bestselling coming-of-age classic, acclaimed by critics, beloved by readers of all ages, taught in schools and universities alike, and translated around the world—from the winner of the 2019 PEN/Nabokov Award for Achievement in International Literature. The House on Mango Street is the remarkable story of Esperanza Cordero, a young Latina girl growing up in Chicago, inventing for herself who and what she will become. Told in a series of vignettes—sometimes heartbreaking, sometimes deeply joyous—Sandra Cisneros' masterpiece is a classic story of childhood and self-discovery. Few other books in our time have touched so many readers.

Visit a Vietnam few have seen with boisterous seven-year-old Sean and his family. They Don't Speak English Here captures the experiences of Sean Little as he and his parents travel to the central highlands of Vietnam to visit their “ adopted family. ” Told through Sean's journal entries, the trip shows us how a family shares generosity, humor, heartbreak, and love with a foreign culture. Sean Little's innocent perspective gives us the chance to see a country and a people through eyes that know nothing of the complex history that exists between two countries.
