In addition to posting to the SAS Community Library, there are SAS conferences. The submissions for the SAS Global Forum 2016 conference recently closed, but there are many regional conferences, so look into WUSS, MMSUG, SESUG or another conference.. I do not agree with the person who said, "if it isn't a VA paper, don't bother."

How do I submit a white paper to SAS - SAS Support Communities

You question is fairly generic. If you want a more detailed answer, feel free to post more details about what you would like to do (publish in a research journal, use SAS programming to create the paper, present at a conference, complete a homework assignment).. Here's a good conference paper about how to research and organize and create a paper about work that you've done using SAS.

Publish a Paper with SAS - SAS Support Communities

If you would like the chance to create a formal paper and present it to your peers, you can submit a paper proposal for SAS Global Forum or one of the SAS Regional or special interest groups. This article (and video) describes the process for SAS Global Forum -- but unfortunately the call for papers has already passed the deadline for 2014.
